++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy start gradually becoming brighter. A few showers.

Today:
A rather cloudy start with occasional mainly light showers around. Across southern and western Aberdeenshire it becomes brighter this morning with sunny spells developing, with perhaps some brighter spells, but still a few showers, across northern and eastern parts later. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Some late sunny then clear spells, especially across the south and west, with the north and east cloudier at times with showers. Northerly breeze will be occasionally fresh near coasts. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Sunday:
Rather cloudy across the north and east through the morning with a few showers. However drier, brighter conditions in the south and west develop more widely for the afternoon. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
A few showers Monday and Tuesday but many places dry with clear or sunny spells. Bright start Wednesday but outbreaks of occasionally heavy, perhaps thundery, showery rain spreading east.
